Dear Chief Brown, Tribe Members and Guests:

It is a pleasure to bring greetings to you as you gather to celebrate the 37th Cheroenhaka (Nottoway) Indian Tribe Green Corn Powwow.

Today's celebration is a powerful expression of cultural pride, tradition, and community. As the Cheroenhaka (Nottoway) Tribe celebrates four hundred and forty-five years of perseverance, today's festivities serve as a testament to the enduring strength and heritage of your tribe.

Your annual Green Corn Powwow also serves as a vital opportunity to share traditions, foster unity and an invitation for guests to learn about the rich history of your community. The music, dance and storytelling that define this gathering reflect a legacy that continues to inspire and enrich our broader communities.

I extend my sincere appreciation to the Cheroenhaka (Nottoway) Tribe for your leadership and your continued contributions to the Commonwealth Virginia.

Best wishes for a festive Powwow.

Very Truly Yours,

Robert C. "Bobby" Scott
